20 Years … and Growing!

The New York State Association of Women in Administration was established in 1990 with the following goals:

- Promoting gender-balanced leadership in education
- Advancing equity and diversity in New York's schools

Promoting gender-balanced leadership

Today, NYSAWA continues to grow, with ELEVEN affiliate chapters throughout New York State. NYSAWA's over 800 local affiliate and statewide members are men and women who value diversity, and provide leadership that enhances our New York State schools.

Tap Into NYSAWA'S Benefits

- Statewide network of colleagues
- Assistance in seeking/obtaining administrative positions
- Support for colleagues in achieving success
- Leadership skill development for women and girls
- Annual conference
- Access to the NYSAWA Newsletter and other publications
- Access to NYSAWA website and information
- Opportunities to meet career consultants

Annual Conference

NYSAWA'S annual conference provides members an opportunity to learn from experts on the topics of equity and diversity in education that enhance student success, as well as network with colleagues from across the State.

Annual Awards

The annual conference gives NYSAWA an opportunity to recognize members who model the NYSAWA mission in their work with the NYSAWA Awards.

NYSAWA Newsletter

Advancing equity and diversity in New York's schools

The NYSAWA Newsletter is electronically distributed to members four times per year. The newsletter keeps members informed of the activities of our affiliate groups, recognizes the achievements of its members and keeps members up to date on issues involving diversity in education.
