NYSAWA

17 Years... and Growing!

The New York State Association of Women in Administration was established in 1990 with the following goals:

- Promoting gender-balanced leadership in education
- Advancing equity and diversity in New York's schools

Today, NYSAWA continues to grow, with eleven affiliate chapters throughout New York

State. NYSAWA's over 300 statewide members and 200 local affiliate members are men and women who serve as educational administrators in public schools throughout New York State and value diversity in education.
